

Grade Appeals and Academic Appeals Boards

In each college of the University, there shall be established an Academic Appeals Board

4. It shall be the primary function of a board to mediate or adjudicate disputes that have not been satisfactorily resolved on the department level.

5. Each Board shall be given the responsibility of establishing its own rules of procedure. Such rules as it establishes must be consistent with the full protection of the rights of all parties involved.

6. Meetings of a board may be closed to the public.
